

As human beings,
we are known by our character.
Our character is shaped
by our life-values.
Our values are clarified
by our integrity.
Our integrity is proven
by our actions.
Our actions define
how we are perceived.
How we are perceived
is our character.

Dance does not build character.
It reveals it.
